Explanation

The bill does not result in a fiscal impact to the Departments of Children and Families (DCF) and Agriculture (DAG). It requires DCF to implement animal cruelty educational training for agency staff and to train animal control officers on reporting child abuse and neglect. Additionally, it requires DAG to submit a monthly animal control officer activity report to DCF.

OLR Bill AnalysissHB 6226AN ACT CONCERNING CROSS-REPORTING OF CHILD ABUSE AND ANIMAL CRUELTY.SUMMARY:

This bill requires state, regional, and municipal animal control officers (ACOs) and Department of Children and Families (DCF) employees to report to the Department of Agriculture (DOAG) commissioner when they reasonably suspect that an animal is being treated cruelly, harmed, or neglected. The agriculture commissioner must forward the information he receives from the ACOs to the DCF commissioner in a monthly report. The DCF commissioner determines whether any address in an animal cruelty report corresponds to an address where there is an open investigation of a child.

The DCF commissioner must develop and implement training for her department's employees on (1) how to identify cruelty or harm to or neglect of animals and (2) their relationship to child welfare case practices. She must also train ACOs concerning identifying and reporting child abuse and neglect. All training must be accomplished within available appropriations.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 1, 2011

REPORT TO THE AGRICULTURE COMMISSIONERAnimal Control Officers

Under the bill, when a state, regional, or municipal ACO, in the course of his or her work, reasonably suspects that an animal has been harmed, neglected, or treated cruelly in violation of the law, and files the requisite petition in Superior Court, the ACO must also report in writing to the DOAG commissioner. The ACO must file the report as soon as practicable but no later than 48 hours after filing the court petition. The bill identifies the following contents, if known, the report must include:

1. the address where the animal was seen and the name and address of its owner or caretaker;
2. the animal's name and description;
3. the nature and extent of the harm, neglect, or cruelty and the approximate date and time it occurred;
4. any information regarding any prior harm, neglect, or cruelty to the animal;
5. how the ACO learned of the harm, neglect, or cruelty; and
6. the name and address of everyone the ACO reasonably suspects to be responsible.

DCF Employees

The bill requires DCF employees who, in the course of their work, reasonably suspect that an animal has been harmed, neglected or treated cruelly in violation of the law, to report to the DOAG commissioner, with certain restrictions. A DCF employee's report must be made anonymously and orally, rather than in writing. The bill also creates an exception to the reporting requirement when the employee determines that it would interfere with his or her child welfare duties.

Like the ACO's report, the DCF employee must make it as soon as practicable but no more than 48 hours after observing the suspected harm, neglect, or animal cruelty. The DCF report must include the information in 1 to 3 listed above.

DOAG COMMISSIONER'S RESPONSIBILITIES

Monthly, beginning November 1, 2011, the DOAG commissioner must report all the information he or she receives from the ACOs for the preceding month to the DCF commissioner. The bill does not require the DOAG commissioner to forward any information he receives from a DCF employee; but presumably, the DOAG could take action on the animal abuse reports received from DCF.

DCF COMMISSIONER'S RESPONSIBILITIES

Within a week of receiving the DOAG report, the DCF commissioner must determine whether an address linked to an animal abuse report is the same as a location where DCF has opened a child welfare investigation. If so, the commissioner must give the department's investigator the relevant information from the DOAG report on the matter and include it in the DCF record on the child.

By October 1, 2012, the commissioner must develop and implement, in consultation with the DOAG commissioner, training for DCF employees on identifying harm, neglect, and cruelty to animals and its relationship to child welfare case practice. The training must be provided annually.

The DCF commissioner must also make training available to all ACOs on the accurate and prompt identification and reporting of child abuse and neglect.
